

On April 14, 2010, the Nebraska Supreme Court adopted the following amendments to Neb. Ct. R. § 1-511 (Mandatory Continuing Judicial Education; Advisory Committee Provisions).

§ 1-511. Judicial Branch Education Advisory Committee; composition; selection.

The Nebraska Supreme Court shall appoint a Judicial Branch Education Advisory Committee consisting of ~~12~~ 13 members:

COMPOSITION:        Chief Justice, or his/her delegate (ex officio)
                             Court of Appeals Judge
                             District Court Judge
                             County Court Judge
                             Separate Juvenile Court Judge
                             Clerk Magistrate
                             Clerk of the District Court
                             Probation Officer
                             Court Reporter
                             Workers' Compensation Court designee
                             State Court Administrator (ex officio)
                             State Probation Administrator (ex officio)
                             Director of Judicial Branch Education (ex officio)

SELECTION: Appointment by Chief Justice with the recommendation of the individual education committees.

The Supreme Court shall designate one of the members as chair and one member as vice chair who may serve in the event of disqualification or unavailability of the chair. Members serve staggered, renewable ~~three~~ 3-year terms. The Committee shall convene not less than two times per year.